Shirley Joists Are Sold Florida-Wide

If you see a low-boy (trailer) loaded with concrete joists heading north through Canal Point you can rest assured that it is another load of the widely used joists from Shirley Brothers in Pahokee being taken to some construction job in Florida. When we say Florida we mean just that. For, this week joists from the Pahokee plant are being shipped to Tallahassee where they go into construction of new class rooms at Florida State University.

A great new high school under construction at Gainesville, Fla., will use the joists from the Shirley plant in Pahokee. Shipment will start immediately. In the not too distant future Howard Johnson's will erect a new "Landmark for Hungry Americans" on the east coast of Palm Beach County and again Shirley joists will be used. A new hospital in Seminole county at Sanford was recently built and into it went the now famous Shirley joists. Large shipments of them were used in a massive structure in St. Petersburg only last summer.

The Shirley concern, under the active management of Claude Shirley and his brother Lynn, has grown to be one of the outstanding concrete products concerns in Florida. A report from the plant just recently showed that the concrete joist manufacturing plant has been shut down only two weeks in the past five years. Looking forward to another season of big business the office building of the concern in Pahokee recently was given a brightening and fresh-up coat of paint.

Survivors: 5 cousins, Marie and Katherine Carr of West Palm Beach, Fla.; Marie, Fred, Norman Schlotthauer of Chicago, Ill.

Jones Building Nears Completion

The new Jones business building on Bacon Point Road has been completed excepts for a few finishing touches, according to Elmer Jones, owner. Tom Davis, Glades superintendent for the United Insurance Company of Illinois, has already moved his offices into the new building and Dr. Salvador Williams plans to move his office and clinic at Canal Point into a suite of rooms in the new building this week. Mr. Jones plans to move his stock of hardware to the new building the last of the month.

Dan's Restaurant Is Remodeled After Fire

Dan's Restaurant, recently damaged severely by fire, is open for business again following a complete remodeling job by Dr. L. W. Armstrong, owner of the building. Alvin Armstrong did the work and the building is one of the attractive spots in the block.

The restaurant, owned and operated by Dan Morris, has been completely refurbished on the inside and the proprietor extends a cordial invitation to his many friends to visit his new place.

The front of the restaurant is built of stucco brick and the entire building looks fresh and inviting with a new coat of paint.

Would Make AFB Permanent Base

The county commission this week adopted a resolution asking the Air Force to make Palm Beach Air Force Base a permanent military installation.

The motion to seek approval for a permanent base at the county seat was made by Paul Rardin, Canal Point, who included in his vote of gratitude to all those who brought about reactivation of the base. Rardin was chairman of the county board when the base was reactivated in 1951.

The West Palm Beach Air Field, known as Morrison Field during World War 2, was reactivated by the Military Air Transport Command at the request of county agencies which included the county commission, most of the county's municipalities, Resources Development Board, Chambers of Commerce and a number of other organizations.

The resolution adopted by the commission called on the Air Force to designate the base as a permanent field in the Air Force.

Rardin also won commission support for his suggestion that copies of the county resolution be sent to all Palm Beach County municipalities with the request that the city governments cooperate in seeking to get the base made a permanent Air Force installation.

High School Glee Club In Assembly Program

The 39-voice Pahokee High School Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Margaret Powell, presented a choral salute to Thanksgiving in the school auditorium at the student assembly Friday.

The group, accompanied by Miss Rose Marie Henderson, pianist, opened the program with the singing of "The Lord is My Shepherd," with Hal Rosenberg, soloist. Following the reading of "The First Thanksgiving Day" by Miss Jeanne Mock, the glee club sang two special numbers, an adaptation of the 138th Psalm, "We Thank Thee Lord," and the 100th Psalm set to music.

Senator George T. Tapper of Port St. Joe, was informally named president pro-temp of the 1955 legislative session at a caucus of hold-over senators held in Gainesville recently.

Crosby Has Plan For Leading Zone

A plat for a new subdivision in the Negro section of Pahokee was submitted by R. O. Crosby to the Pahokee City Council for approval at the regular council meeting Monday night. Crosby offered to donate to the city a leading zone site, 180 by 250 feet in area, in the Negro section for the loading of farm labor if the city in exchange would agree to pave the street that would intersect the proposed new subdivision. The Council decided to consult its Loading Zone Advisory Committee and determine whether the site offered by Crosby would be suitable as a loading zone before taking any action on his offer.

The bid of the Orange State Oil Company to furnish 10,000 gallons of gasoline and oil for the operation of city-operated motor vehicles was accepted at the meeting and City Clerk Dorothy Graham was authorized to advertise for bids for a new police car.

It was announced that starting in January mailed payments of water bills must have a post mark on the envelope dated not later than the tenth of the month in order for the bill to be subject to the ten per cent discount that becomes effective the first of the year.

A request by Frank Friend for the installation of a street light on the road leading to his farm labor quarters was tabled until the need for the light is investigated.

Farm Bureau Elects At Annual Meeting

The Everglades Branch of the Palm Beach County Farm Bureau held its annual meeting for the election of directors and family dinner in the Community Hall at Canal Point with approximately 200 persons from the entire Glades area attending.

Directors elected to represent the various communities of the Glades were: Pahokee, Robert Apelgren; R. M. (Mike) Sanders and Hilton Jones; Canal Point, A. R. Harrington, Frank M. Wilson and J. W. Pepper; Belle Glade, J. K. Baker and C. W. McDonald; South Bay, Henry Elfers.

President J. K. Baker, who presided, introduced as guest speaker Sandy Johnson of Winter Haven, a representative of the Florida Farm Bureau, who discussed the new amendment to the social security act which includes farm labor among the groups covered by social security, starting Jan. 1. He also discussed the Blue Cross and Blue Shield hospital and medical insurance plan.

Fred McNeese of Delray Beach, president of the Palm Beach County Farm Bureau and vice president of the State organization reported on the recent Florida Farm Bureau meeting he attended in Winter Haven.

The group decided to have their secretary write to their U.S. senators and congressmen, requesting that steps be taken to have bean pickers and similar vegetable harvest hands exempt from the

Jimmy Hoyle Bags 10-Point Buck Deer

A. L. (Jack) Pope enjoyed the weekend in the woods on a hunting trip with Lester Hoyle and his sons, Gordon and Jimmy Lee Hoyle and Jackie and others. Jimmy Lee, who is as good at hunting as he is in line backing the Pahokee Blue Devil football team, brought down a fine 10-point buck deer and the party also got several turkeys. Mr. Pope's hunting eye may not be what it used to be, but his enthusiasm for the outdoor life in the woods is as keen as ever.

He was a member of the Pahokee Lions Club and the Glades Flight of the Civil Air Patrol.

Survivors include his wife, Dorothy, Pahokee; two sons, Ronald Stanley, West Palm Beach, and Lt. (jg) Edward E. Stanley, U. S. Navy, Coronado, Calif.; and a sister, Mrs. C. J. Willingham, Miami Springs.

Subdivision Plots Filed For The Glades

Most of the residential development in Palm Beach County in recent years has been confined to the coastal areas but the Glades community made its mark in subdivision development this week.

The county commission Monday approved a number of subdivision plats and among them were Lake Shore sub-division in Bell Glade and Ridgester Gardens in Pahokee.

The two sub-division plats were offered by Commissioner Paul Rardin and were approved by the board. Other plats included areas in Lake Park, Riviera Beach and West Palm Beach.

Automobiles today contain more electric light bulbs than the average 5-room house, reports the American Automobile Association.

The Pahokee High School Blue Devils, the new 1954 Suncoast Conference champions, clinched the conference crown before a jam-packed crowd on Lair Field Wednesday night when they defeated the Belle Glade Golden Rams, 26-12, in a hotly contested battle with each team giving all it had to the very end. By winning this game the Blue Devils also earned the honor of holding the Bill Young Memorial Trophy for another year.

It was a battle between two powerful lines that clashed head-on up and down the field, with Halfback Hal Rosenberg starring in the backfield for the Blue Devils and Fullback Walt Mosley, for the Rams. Rosenberg scored all four of Pahokee's touchdowns, one in each quarter, two of them in spectacular 69 and 73-yard runs, another in a 11-yard sweep around left end, and the fourth in a four-yard plunge through the Ram line. Quarterback George Mills made one of the extra points for Pahokee with a quarterback sneak through the center of the line and End Don Weddel made the other on an end-around play.

The Rams' first touchdown, made near the end of the second quarter, was run by their Fullback Mosley in a seven-yard end sweep after the Rams recovered a Pahokee fumble on the Pahokee 11. Late in the game Mosley passed 29 yards to End J. F. Wilcher who connected on the Pahokee 15 and ran the rest of the way for the Rams' second TD.

Retread Complete Canal Pt.-B. Glade

Work of resurfacing State Road 15 over a 13.8 mile stretch from Canal Point through Pahokee to Belle Glade was completed Tuesday, according to County Commission Paul Rardin.

The work, consisting of two leveling costs and a top coat of hot plant mix, was done by the Rubin Construction Co. at a contract price of $157,000. The leveling coats, Rardin said, were applied about two weeks ago.

With completion of the entire project, Rardin described SR 15 as "in A-1 condition and perfectly smooth."

Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

The operation of nursing homes in Palm Beach County was the object of a survey being conducted by county health authorities this week following an impression left with the county board by nursing home operators that aged residents were not being properly cared for.

The impression was left with the commission that members of her profession wanted the county to underwrite the cost of indigent care to $150 per month. The homes now get $60 a month per patient from the state.

The nursing home operators appeared before the commission some time ago and made their original request for an increase in monthly payments for care of aged residents.

Mrs. Davidson told the commission that she would favor seeing the County Home and Hospital closed and the money budgeted for this activity, turned over to the nursing homes.

Members of the commission, en masse, heartedly denied that the county was not meeting its responsibilities in caring for needy residents and emphatically stated that it was not the intention of the board to close the hospital or the county children's homes.

Mrs. Davidson said she and other operators of nursing homes received numerous telephone calls from persons who need care.

Commission Chairman Lake Lytal said he couldn't understand how the nursing homes received so many calls and the county none.

"Any elderly person who needs help," Lytal declared, "is taken into the county home automatically."

In many cases, the chairman said, the elderly persons do not seek care since they are independent and prefer to take care of themselves.

Lytal told the nursing home delegation that the county was not in a position to supplement the home charges to the extent of $150 per month. The county now pays an additional $40 per month over the amount given by the state pensions.

Dr. W. E. VanLandingham county physician, said he knew of no instances where anyone that needed help had ever been turned away from the county hospital.

Finale of the hour long discussion was the decision of the commission to survey all nursing homes to determine rates, number of patients, facilities, and the number of welfare patients who were being cared for.

The survey will be conducted by the county health department and the county physicians' office.

Commissioner Paul Rardin, Canal Point, summed up the feeling of the commission when he said that the county "bends over backwards" to take care of indigent and the aged and the commission would never consider closing either the county home and hospital or either of the two childrens homes.

Palm Beach County has been commended by the Board of Visitors and other agencies for its home and hospital and operation of the childrens home.

Dr. VanLandingham reported to the commission that a total of 51 patients were now being cared for at the county hospital—an all time high for patient load at the institution.

Cinematic Chatter By Malcolm Millar

Hello everybody! "I never carry the tools of my trade when I'm not working," Randolph Scott once told a young fan who stopped him on Beverly Hills corner and demanded to know why the actor didn't have his six-guns. "A gun belt gets pretty heavy when you tote it around ten hours a day making a picture," Scott explained to the boy enthusiast. "So I leave it at the studio when I don't need it, and I don't think I'll need it in Beverly Hills. Scott off-screen life is strictly modern. Famous as the star of outdoor dramas his buckskins and six-guns are left hanging in the actor's dressing room when he isn't "play acting." He dresses usually in tweeds, and wears narrow-trimmed O fedora hats. He resides in a dignified English-Style house in a fashionable section of Beverly Hills. There is no stable in the back, only a three-car garage. No rail fence either to give the place a ranchy air. Just a plain wire fence with climbing roses. When the star wants to hit the saddle, he drives his convertible to a favorite riding stable across the mountains in San Fernando Valley. There his favorite mount, "Star Dust", is stabled. Although considered one of the toughest "law men" in pictures, Scott is a modest, quite spoken man, who enjoys his home and family and loves hunting and fishing. See you at the movies—Mal.

SEAL HEADS NAMED

Christmas Seal Sale Chairman for the communities of Palm Beach County have been appointed and are at work to make the 49th Annual Christmas Seal Sale a success, according to A. Parker Bryant, County Seal Sale Chairman of the Palm Beach County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

The following Seal Sale Chairmen for the county are announced: Belle Glade, Emmett Roberts; Pa-hokee, Mrs. E. A. Jensen; Canal Point, Mrs. Duke Tucker; South Bay, Mrs. W. C. Allen; Lake Harbor, Mrs. R. O. Plank.

A new speeded up schedule by Trans-Canada Airlines serving Florida's West Coast area will become effective Dec. 1.

Around The County

The popularity of the new Palm Beach County Agricultural building on Military Trail was pointed up this week in a report from County Agent M. U. Mounts. Mounts told the county commission that since the building was completed several months ago, it has been used for 81 public meetings which drew a combined attendance of more than 1,500 persons. This attendance does not include the hundreds who visited the new building for the official opening.

County Commission Chairman Lake Lytal and his colleague, Vice Chairman Ben Sundy, Delray Beach, are both ready to start their new terms on the county board January 1. The commission this week approved the required bonds for the two officials and forwarded the commissioners' oath of office to Secretary of State R. A. Gray. They were re-elected in the November election.

Palm Beach County has long been represented in the National Association of County Officials by Paul Rardin, commissioner from Canal Point. Rardin 'for many years has been an active member of the national group and this year is serving as a member of the Associations Highway Committee. The Canal Point official has been named as the county's official delegate to the National Association's mid-winter conference to be held Nov. 29-30 at Birmingham, Ala.

A condemnation suit to gain right of way for widening of U. S. 1 south of Delray Beach has brought Palm Beach County into court action with some of the largest battery of defendants in many years. County Attorney Harry Johnston said the suit had a total of 202 defendants.

In connection with the county's desire to get an immediate start on widening U. S. 1 particularly near Lake Park and in West Palm Beach where right of way has been cleared and plans completed—County Commissioner Kenneth Foster is scheduled to appear before the State Board November 30 to try and get action on the two projects.

Palm Beach County is growing by leaps and bounds—in fact it's getting hard to keep track of the bonds. In an effort to avoid any subdivisions having streets by the same name, the commission has instructed County Engineer Steve Middleton to make an index of street names now in existence so that the list will be available for checking future plats.

Rogers Is Speaker Before Lions, Rotes

The Pahokee Lions Club and the Pahokee Rotary Club members met jointly at a luncheon in the Woman's Club building Tuesday to hear a talk by Congressman Dwight L. Rogers of Fort Lauderdale, the Rotarians attending as guests of the Lions.

Introduced by Jess M. Elliott, the speaker reviewed the tax legislation passed in the last session of the U. S. Congress.

The Lions Club drew up a resolution in memory of the late Ralph C. Stanley who died at the local hospital from a heart attack Monday night and was an active member of the club, a copy of the resolution to be sent to his family.

It was announced the joint meeting of the Pahokee Rotary Club and the Pahokee and Canal Point Lions Clubs, scheduled for Dec. 9, has been cancelled following information that the guest speaker, Senator Spessard Holland, would be unable to attend because of important legislative business in Washington, D. C.

A 1937 heart attack victim at Hialeah Race Course was found to have a winning mutual ticket clutched in his hand. He had placed a bet on "Time to Go."

Pell And Howard Talk To C. P. Lions

The Canal Point Lions had as guests at their dinner meeting in the Community Hall Monday night Coach Web Pell and Assistant Coach William D. Howard of the Pahokee High Blue Devils. Introduced by O. H. Sheppard, program chairman, Coach Pell showed motion pictures of the Blue Devils in action against the Vero Beach Indians on the night of Nov. 5 when they defeated the Indians, 26-7, of strengthened their lead in the Suncoast Conference race. Both Pell and Howard gave running comments of the game, pointing out outstanding plays as the film was projected.

Grady Boynton, chairman of the committee in charge of the club's benefit turkey shoot, Nov. 22-24, reported the shoot was a success on its first day.

Clyde Alley, former Canal Point School principal now living in Hollywood, was the guest of J. G. Weeks.

PRESENT TREASURY REGULATIONS make it possible for you to collect a return of as much as 80% on the Series E Savings Bonds you already own!

For now those Bonds which you invested in 10 years ago can go right on earning interest for ten more years without your doing a thing about it! That is true not only of the Bonds which you have held for ten years, but any other Series E Bonds which you have invested in the meantime. And any Series E Bonds which you obtain now will also enjoy the extended earning period. They will start earning interest sooner and mature earlier, too, paying 3%, compounded semiannually.

The Bond you got for $18.75 can now pay you $33.67 . . . a $37.50 Bond will be worth $67.34 . . . and so on.

Of course, any Series E Bond may still be redeemed at any time after you have held it for two months. But, like any other form of saving, your Bonds will mean a great deal more to you if you can hold on to them.

Are you one of the millions of Americans who are saving regularly with Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan? If you're not, why not start now? Invest regularly in Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Ask your pay office to save as little as 25¢ a week for you, or as much as you are able.

If you can save just $5 a week regularly through the Plan, in five years you will have $1,367.90 . . . in 9 years and 8 months, you'll have $2,850.70 . . . and in 19 years and 8 months, $6,872.45! This Plan is one sure way to save because it saves something out of every check before you have a chance to spend it.

So join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work today. Or, if you are self-employed, start the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. It's safe, it's sure, it's automatic. And you will be helping yourself and your country!

If you want to be paid your interest as current income—
invest in 3% Series H

If you want a good, sound investment which pays you your interest by check every six months, ask at your bank about United States Government Series H Bonds. Series H is a new current income Bond available in denominations of $500 to $10,000. Redeemable at par after 6 months and on 30 days' notice. Matures in 9 years and 8 months and pays an average 3% interest per annum—if held to maturity. Interest paid semiannually by Treasury check. Series H may be purchased at any bank, annual limit $20,000.

Old Method of Heating Water Gives Way as Electricity Comes to Farm

By JANE BAIRD

Like so many other city people with a rural background, we've always wanted to get back to that good country living we remembered as youngsters. So when the real estate man said he had found just the "old farm house" for our family we didn't hesitate. But with the down and Liquefied Petroleum Gas Ranges, Refrigerators and Water Heaters." It's based on the results of tests conducted with comparable electric and bottled gas water heaters of 66 and 30-gallon storage capacities, respectively.

Three engineering studies were conducted, with each based on payment came the awakening. Now we're part-time carpenters and full-time planners.

Of course, we wouldn't destroy any of the charm of our home for anything. But that pot stove to heat water must go. And what to do and how to heat the water, with electricity or bottled gas, is a smaller. At least, it was until we read a bulletin published by the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. This Bureau, by the way, recently had its name changed to Housing and Equipment Division of the Home Economics Branch.

The booklet is entitled "Technical Bulletin No. 1073—Comparative Utilization of Energy by Household Electric different drawoff schedule. In each case, according to the Technical Bulletin, electric water heaters proved more efficient than bottled gas water heaters by a ratio ranging from 1.62 to 1 to 2 to 1. This was because electric water heaters required fewer heat units (Btu) to heat water than did the bottled gas water heaters.

Then we did a little figuring on our own. Our information showed that we would need 1,344 gallons of water every 30 days. Even if we heated them up to 100 degrees above the incoming water temperature—a test requirement but necessary for many household uses—electric water heaters proved more efficient than bottled gas water heaters by a ratio of 1.9 to 1.

Patricia Jane Guy Weds John Andes, Jr.

The First Methodist Church of Pahokee was the scene Saturday afternoon, Nov. 20, at 4 o'clock, of the wedding of Miss Patricia Jane Guy and John Wilbur Andes, Jr., both of Jacksonville.

Vows for the impressive single ring ceremony, read by the bride's father, Dr. Rembert A. Guy, pastor of the church, were exchanged before the altar banked with palms and baskets of white gladioli and crysanthemums. The white tapers in double cathedral candelabras were lighted by Robert Harry and Michael MacKenzie of Tampa, nephews of the bride. The pews were marked with white satin bows centered with white crysanthemums.

Jack Guy of Atlanta, Ga., brother of the bride, played nuptial selections and the traditional wedding marches on the organ and accompanied Mrs. Hugh H. Branch of Pahokee as she sang "O Promised Me" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, George W. Erickson of Tampa, wore a waltz-length gown of white nylon tulle over bridal satin fashioned with a redgingote of white Alencon lace. The fitted bodice, designed with a Queen Anne collar, was fastened to the waist with tiny self-covered buttons and the long tight-fitting sleeves formed petal points over her hands. The full skirt was outlined in deep scallops. Her three-tiered fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a satin coronet covered with seed pearls and sequins. In her shoe was a lucky sixpence sent to her years ago from an island in the Pacific to be used for this occasion. She carried a colonial bouquet of tuberoses and lilies-of-the-valley centered with a white orchid on a background of English ivy leaves. Her only ornament was a necklace of white gold with heart-shaped pendant of aquamarine.

Mrs. George W. Erickson, Tampa, attended her sister as matron of honor. Her gown was of American beauty velvet designed with a scalloped portrait neckline. The bodice pointed at the front and back, was fitted to a full waltz length skirt and her juliet cap was of matching velvet. Her bouquet was of pink carnations combined with pink tulle covered-satin lace.

The bridegroom was attended by his father, John Wilbur Andes, Sr., of Knoxville, Tenn., as best man. Ushers were Charles Powell of Knoxville and Dr. Samuel C. Tatum of Atlanta.

Mrs. Guy chose for her daughter's wedding an aqua lace gown of waltz length with fitted jacket. Her sequined hat and shoes were of a matching shade and her corsage was a purple orchid. Mrs. Irene Garrett Andes of Jacksonville, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gown of electric blue satin with blue accessories and an orchid corsage.

At the reception at the home of the bride's parents Mrs. Frank Friend and Mrs. Lloyd Hundley greeted guests at the door and presented them to the receiving line. Mrs. A. D. Beverly and Mrs. E. L. Pope presided at the bride's table which was covered with an imported hand-embroidered and appliqued white organdy cloth over pastel green. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a cluster of wedding bells and lilies-of-the-valley tied with white satin ribbon. At either end silver candelabra held white tapers centered with epervettes of white pompons and malpighia. Mrs. R. F. Hurt and Mrs. Duncan Padgett served punch from a table in the living room, while Mrs. Leo Maxwell and Mrs. Robert J. Schroder served at the punch table in the patio. They were assisted by the Misses Cynthia Friend, Alyce Joyce Spencer, Anna Rita Burns, Judy Murphy, Nancy Thomas, Judy Cunningham, Jill McIlwain and Faith Sasser. Mrs. Sidney Davis of Fort Myers was at the guest book. Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. John T. Pickett, Sr., Mrs. J. M. Elliott, Mrs.

L. W. Armstrong, Mrs. C. A. Cain, Mrs. A. J. Spencer, Mrs. I. M. Lair, Mrs. H. J. Anderson and Mrs. John A. Dulany.

Immediately following the reception the bridal couple departed on a wedding trip to Key West and New York City. The bride chose for travel a suit of charcoal grey wool with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. After Dec. 15, Mr. and Mrs. Andes, Jr., will be at their home, 3582 Hedrick St., Avondale, Jacksonville.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Earle M. Willis, Lakeland; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Davis, Fort Myers, and Mr. and Mrs. James McElvey, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. James B. Hughes, all of Miami.

Safe Driving Urged For S-D Day Dec. 15

Issuing an appeal to all residents of Palm Beach County to prevent traffic accidents on Safe Driving Day, December 15, Lake Lytal, chairman of the county commission said the challenge of highway safety is one that must be met on rural roads as well as urban streets.

Roads outside the incorporated limits of cities and villages may be the proving ground where the success of S-Day is decided, Lytal said.

The Commission Monday adopted a proclamation which set December 15 as S-Day in the county and urged motorists to take every precaution on that day and every other day to avoid accidents on the highway.

S-D Day, which is being sponsored by President Eisenhower's Action Committee for Traffic Safety in cooperation with public officials and numerous national organizations, has as its objective the elimination of all traffic accidents for December 15. Its purpose is to demonstrate that the solution to the traffic problem is within the grasp of any community when its citizens are willing to accept their responsibilities as drivers and pedestrians.

Motorists and pedestrians in Palm Beach County can assure the success of S-D Day locally by doing these three things:

First, observe the letter and the spirit of all traffic regulations;

Second, be courteous to every driver and pedestrian — practice sportsmanship;

Third, give full attention to driving and walking;

In other words, drive and walk as they would have all others drive and walk.

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

The vital importance of detecting the false suggestions of evil and correcting them with the spiritual truth concerning God's unfailing goodness and all-power will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

In the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced," the following passage will be read from the Bible (Isaiah 5:20): "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!"

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will be read (489:13): "Mind is God. The exterminator of error is the great truth that God, good, is the only Mind, and that the suppositious opposite of infinite Mind—called devil or evil—is not Mind, is not Truth, but error, without intelligence or reality."

WHICH ONE DO YOU WANT?

you can have your dream house—this easy way!

A dream? Not at all. Thousands of people with modest incomes have been able to save the down payment, or the whole price, of the home of their dreams—because they invested in U. S. Savings Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan. Look at the chart on this page. See how you can accumulate enough money for the down payment on a home. Or enough for your children's college education or a retirement income. And by saving only a few dollars a week, too.

The answer is that you save systematically on the Payroll Savings Plan. All you have to do is tell your pay office how much you've decided to save each payday (it can be as little as a couple of dollars). After that your money is saved for you, before you get your salary. Then each time enough has accumulated, it is invested in a Bond, and the Board turned over to you.

And remember—your U. S. Savings Bonds now will bring you an average of 3% interest, compounded semiannually, for 19 years and 8 months. That's why the money you put into Bonds now grows to such a surprisingly big sum:

Why don't you start—today? Sign, where you work, for the Payroll Savings Plan. Or, if you're self-employed, have your banker enroll you in the Bond-A-Month Plan. It's as easy as the Payroll Savings Plan:
